

I believe that the service provided by K-LOVE radio stations is extremely important and it gives the consumer choices in music, especially with a Christian perspective. This ministry is imperative to my community and family and I would be very upset and disappointed if the FCC chooses to remove this broadcasting. K-LOVE provides uplifting music, prayer and support to the entire community.